And so that:

- (a) None of the objects or powers set forth in this Memorandum of Association shall be restrictively construed but the widest interpretation shall be given to each such object or power, and none of such objects or powers shall, except where the context expressly so requires, be in any way limited or restricted by reference to or inference from any other object or power or objects or powers set forth in such clause, or by reference to or inference from the terms of any other sub-clause of this clause, or by reference to or inference from the name of the Company.
- (b) None of the objects or powers herein specified shall be deemed subsidiary or ancillary to any of the objects or powers specified in any other part of this Memorandum of Association, and the Company shall have as full a power to exercise each and every such object or power as if each contained the objects or powers of a separate company.
- (c) The word 'company' in clauses 3 and 4, except where used in reference to the Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or unincorporated and whether domiciled in the United Kingdom or elsewhere.

- (d) In clauses 3 and 4 the expressions 'holding company' and 'subsidiary' shall have the meanings given to them respectively by section 736 of the Companies Act 1985 and the expression 'subsidiaries' shall include a subsidiary undertaking as defined by section 258 of the Companies Act 1985.
5. The income and property of the Company shall be applied solely towards the promotion of its objects as set forth in this Memorandum of Association and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise howsoever by way of profit, to members of the Company and no director of the Company shall be appointed to any office of the Company paid by salary or fees, or receive any remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth from the Company.

Provided that nothing herein shall prevent any payment in good faith by the Company:

- 5.1. of reasonable and proper remuneration to any member, officer or servant of the Company (not being a director) for any services rendered to the Company and of travelling expenses necessarily incurred in carrying out the duties of any member, officer or servant of the Company;
- 5.2. of interest on money lent by a member or director of the Company at a reasonable rate per annum;
- 5.3. to any director of reasonable out-of-pocket expenses;
- 5.4. of fees, remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth to a Company of which a member of the Company or a director may be a member holding not more than one hundredth part of the capital of such Company;
- 5.5. of reasonable and proper rent for premises demised or let by any member of the Company or any director; and
- 5.6. without prejudice to clause 5.1 of this Memorandum of Association, of remuneration to any director for the supply of goods or services to the Company in return for payment or other material benefit otherwise than in respect of the employment of the director by the Company but only if the goods or services are actually required by the Company and the nature and level of the remuneration is no more than is reasonable in relation to the value of the goods or services; Provided that at no time shall a majority of the directors benefit under this provision and that a director shall not be counted in the quorum and shall withdraw from that part of any meeting at which his appointment or remuneration is under discussion.

6. The liability of the members is limited.
7. Every member of the Company undertakes to contribute to the assets of the Company, in the event of the same being wound up while he is a member, or within 1 (one) year after he ceases to be a member, for payment of the debts and liabilities of the Company contracted before he ceases to be a member and of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves, such amount as may be required not exceeding £1.00 (one pound).
8. If upon the winding up or dissolution of the Company there remains, after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not (subject to the following provisions of this clause 8) be paid to or distributed among the members of the Company, but shall be given or transferred to some other body or bodies having objects similar to the objects of the Company, and which shall prohibit the distribution of its or their income and property among its or their members to an extent at least as great as is imposed on the Company under or by virtue of clause 5 hereof, such body or bodies to be determined by not less than two-thirds of the directors of the Company then entitled to attend and vote at meetings of the directors at or before the time of dissolution, and if so far as effect cannot be given to such provision, then to some other charitable body.
9. Words and expressions defined in the Articles of Association of the Company have the same meaning in this Memorandum of Association.
10. Unless the context otherwise requires, words or expressions contained in this Memorandum of Association bear the same meaning as in the Companies Act but excluding any statutory modification thereof not in force when this Memorandum of Association becomes binding on the Company.
11. Save as otherwise expressly provided, references in this Memorandum of Association to an Act of Parliament are references to that Act as amended or re-enacted from time to time and to any subordinate legislation made under it.
12. In this Memorandum of Association, references to persons shall, unless the context otherwise provides, include corporations and references to masculine, feminine and neuter shall encompass a reference to any of them and references to the singular shall include the plural and vice versa.

We the several persons whose names and addresses are subscribed are desirous of being formed into a Company in pursuance of this Memorandum of Company.
